

ALLIANCE for AFRICAN PARTNERSHIP

CALL FOR MSU FACULTY MENTORS:

The Alliance for African Partnership is seeking applications from MSU faculty to become a mentor for our 2020/2021 African Futures cohort.

AAP is looking for researchers from a variety of fields to serve as mentors as part of our African Futures Research Leadership

Program. We are halfway through our inaugural cohort, and so far, our scholars have surpassed our expectations. We are excited to begin the application process for next year's cohort - starting with MSU Faculty mentors!

Program Benefits:

- A salaried early career researcher for 12 months to assist with research, teaching, grant writing, etc.
- A research/professional development mini-grant of $8,000 to be administered jointly by the researcher and their mentors
- Additional prof. development workshops offered by AAP and other campus partners in a variety of areas
- Travel to South Africa for a one-week research leadership workshop by the researcher at the Future Africa campus at the University of Pretoria
- Mentor exchanges between the MSU and home institution mentors for one-week periods for follow-up collaboration meetings after the program ends

Eligibility:

- MSU Faculty at the Associate or Full Professor Level who have had experience working in Africa
 - Those who have never worked in Africa but would like to explore these partnerships are encouraged to apply
- Only one submission per faculty member for this cohort
- Proposed research/activities should begin August 31, 2020
- Proposals must be submitted in at least one of AAP's priority areas

Mentor applications are due by Feb. 14, 2020.
